6 Club Quiz Contestants from Appomattox County

Both teams, of three members each, appearing on Klassroom Quiz Monday night, August 19th, were from Appomattox County.

Appearing for the first were the Lucky Clover 4-H Club (shown on the left) and the Appomattox Senior 4-H Community Club (on the right) who were trying and were successful in their bid for their fourth consecutive win on this program.

Unfortunately, one team had to lose and the Lucky Clover Club members were not so "lucky" Monday night. The Appomatox Senior Club will appear for the 5th consecutive week this Monday night, August 26th, so be sure to tune in Channel 7, WDBJ Roanoke, and "root" for this fine group of young people.

Lynchburg Twins Slate Annual Counties Night

The Lynchburg Twins of the Carolina League will hold their first annual County NIght at Lynchburg's City Stadium Sunday, August 25 in a 7:30 p.m. baseball game against the Peninsula Pennants.

L-Twins general manager Frank Cappiello announced that the first 200 youngsters entering the ball park will receive a free professional model baseball bat autographed by Lynchburg players.

The Lynchburg team is furnished players by the parent organization, the Minnesota Twins, and is currently involved in a battle for the second half championship with the Salem Pirates.

Five Lynchburg players are among the top ten in batting with Frank Grundler setting the pace for the league with a .344 mark. Russ Noah and Willie Norwood, a pair of L-Twin outfielders are hitting .318 and .311 while rookie shortstop Ted Shipley his hitting .306 and second baseman Mike Gerakos is maintaining a .298 clip.

L-Twins first baseman Randy Bass leads the Carolina League in home runs with 30 and in runs-batted-in with 101. Grundler has the league lead in total bases with 224 and in triples with 16.

Overall the L-Twins lead the league in team hitting with a .275 mark. Several Lynchburg players are expected to be placed on the Minnesota roster after the end of the Carolina League season. Grundler, Bass, Norwood, Shipley, Noah and catcher Sal Butera have all shown a great deal of promise according to Minor League Player Director George Brophy who was in Lynchburg for an extended visit earlier this month.

Relief pitcher Bill Clauss and starters Steve Blood and John Maier are also highly regarded by the parent club.

Bass, Grundler and Norwood have been named to the Carolina League All-Star team along with second baseman Charlie Meyers of Winston-Salem shortstop Todd Cruz of Rocky Mount, catcher Steve Nicosia of Salem outfielders Alfredo Edmead and Miguel Dilone, both of Salem.

Lefthander Doug Nelson and right-hander Don Aase were selected as All-Star pitchers. Nelson is from Salem while Aase is from Winston-Salem. Salem manager John Lipon was named the league manager-of-the-year and the All-Star manager.

The Counties Night game will be the final home game of the season for the L-Twins and reduced price tickets will be available from the following businesses: Kings Markets, Farmers National Bank, Fidelity National Bank, Webbs Tire Co., Moses Motor Co., Lawson Ford, Jeanne's Resturant, Wilbun's market, Appomattox Dairy Queen and the Times-Virginian.
